

NOTES

Welcome to worship at The Church of the Pilgrimage. We hope you will join us for coffee hour following the service, and return to worship with us again soon!

Children will proceed to Sunday school following the time for children. Children under three are welcome anytime in the cribroom downstairs in the church building where our nursery worker Kristen Moses will watch over them. Parents of infants may also use the glider in the balcony of the sanctuary to soothe tired little ones.

We ask that everyone seated beside the center aisle fill out the fellowship pad and pass it down your row for others to sign it too. Please include your local address if you are a visitor and would like to be sent a newsletter. Thank you!

Prayer concerns may be voiced during Celebrations and Concerns or written on a note and placed in the prayer box in the upper vestibule before worship begins so that Pastor Helen can read them out at the prayer time.

Printed copies of the morning sermon and the readings are available on the marble table in the upper vestibule. Hearing devices may also be found on that table.

The Good Samaritan Fund, which assists with such expenses as rent, utility, food and health bills, is received on the second Sunday of the month. If you wish to contribute, there are specially marked envelopes located in the pews for that purpose.

Missions will be sponsoring the Alternative Christmas Fair once again today and also next Sunday December 18. Heifer International honor cards; Equal Exchange products; Granola Project; stuffed animals and jewelry from Uganda; and gift items from Saint Rock, Haiti will be available.

Today is your last chance to order a poinsettia and be included in next Sunday's bulletin insert listing the donors and those memorialized or honored. The suggested donation for a poinsettia is $15. Volunteers will be welcomed to take flowers to shut-ins following next Sunday's service. All other flowers may be picked up after the Christmas Eve services or the following Sunday.

Enter this world,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

ANTHEM

Before the Paling of the Stars
Words by Christina Rossetti (1830-1894)
Music by Donald Bailey

Before the paling of the stars, before the winter morn,
Before the earliest cock crow, Jesus Christ was born:
Born in a stable, cradled in a manger,
In the world His hands had made, born a stranger.

Priest and king lay fast asleep in Jerusalem,
Young and old lay fast asleep in crowded Bethlehem;
Saint and Angel, ox and ass, kept a watch together
Before the Christmas daybreak in the winter weather.

Jesus on his mother's breast in a stable cold,
Spotless lamb of God was He, shepherd of the fold:

Let us kneel with Mary maid, with Joseph bent and hoary,
With Saint and Angel, ox and ass, to hail the King of Glory.

I Wonder As I Wander

Traditional Appalachian Carol; arranged by Ruth Elaine Schram

Ally Lynch, soloist

I wonder as I wander out under the sky,
How Jesus, the Savior, did come for to die
For poor, orn'ry people like you and like I;
I wonder as I wander out under the sky.

When Mary birthed Jesus, 'twas in a cow's stall,
With wise men and farmers and shepherds and all;
But high from God's heaven a star's light did fall,
And the promise of ages it then did recall, it then did recall.

If Jesus had wanted for any wee thing,
A star in the sky, or a bird on the wing,
Or all of God's angels in heav'n for to sing,

He surely could have it, 'cause he was the king, he was the king.

I wonder as I wander out under the sky.

*DOXOLOGY and PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

Offering these gifts, we pray for open hearts – that we might receive your great good news, share good news, be good news. Bless the gifts and the givers we pray. Let it all be joy. Amen.
