Ol' Bess Speaks at a Gathering

Storyteller Sheila Arnold is Ol' Bess, a tavern slave from 18th century Williamsburg, Virginia. Listeners are transported to a slave-gathering, where Ol' Bess shares tales and songs from the period, as well as personal stories about her life as a slave. This engaging, interactive performance is both a fascinating look at Colonial America, and a stirring glimpse into the strength of one human spirit.

Family-friendly. Equally thought-provoking and wonderfully entertaining.

75 minute performance concludes with a Question and Answer session.
Refreshments will be served.
Seating is first come, first served.

The event is free. A Freewill Offering is appreciated.
